November 9, 2009 minutes continues

Communications: MTA Faxes, Cuppad reports, Chamber of Commerce, Delta Solid Waste, Soil Conservation, Uppco, and Wisconsin Electric.

Unfinished Business: The Magnuson case is still dragging. The dry wall in the home has asbestosis in it and has to be taken out before the home can be taken down.

The LaBumbard blight case the Attorney went to see the property and it is still pending.

Fire Chief Dave Vanderlinden received the approval of the first phase of the 2% grant from Hannahville of $25,000.00. Good job Dave.

New Business: Assessor Dubord was the only Assessor in Delta County who passed his 14point review. Great job Kevin!

The parking lot lights will be fixed soon by Kobas Electric.

The Board of Review is looking for two more Board members. Betty Lou Tourangeau will be on one more year and will be giving it up. Barry King will give it a try for this year. We are still in need of a substitute if Cathy Flagstadt will take over Rex McGinn's spot. Treasurer Trombley-Robitaille moved to accept Barry King as a new Board of Review member, seconded by Trustee Gareau. Motion carried.

Bob Barron asked for a letter of support to put a irrigation system to his land from a pond that is all approved by the DEQ. Treasurer Trombley-Robitaille moved to give this letter of approval, seconded by Trustee Gareau. This motion was opposed by the Supervisor. Motion carried.

Paul Herioux's old home will be torn down by November 30 including the basement before winter.

Public Comments: None.

Trustee Gareau moved to pay bills, seconded by Treasurer Trombely-Robitaille. Motion carried.

Clerk Beauchamp moved to adjourn at 8:55 p.m., seconded by Trustee Gareau. Motion carried.
